

Privacy Policy

Introduction

U Leisure Ltd is committed to protecting your privacy and any personal information we collect. U Leisure Ltd complies with the Privacy Act 1993. Your privacy is important to us and we take the responsibility of handling Event participants' personal information very seriously. We recognise that individuals have a right to control how their personal information is collected and used.

This privacy policy applies to the event services offered by Social Sport (Event), trading as U Leisure Ltd. It explains how we collect, use, disclose and store personal information when you visit our website and use any products or services which we sell and/or provide. Unless given consent to do otherwise, U Leisure Ltd will only collect and use personal information as set out below:

1. What information does the Event collect?
2. What does the Event use your information for?
3. How does the Event protect your information?
4. Access to your information
5. Cookies and use of Tracking Technologies
6. Do we disclose information to third parties?
7. Third Party links
8. How long do we hold your information?
9. Your consent
10. Changes to our Privacy Policy
11. Contacting us

This policy is provided for your information and doesn't limit or exclude your rights under the Privacy Act 1993

1. What information does the Event collect?

The only personal information collected is what is provided voluntarily by a participant when you purchase an event entry, subscribe to the event newsletter, respond to a survey or fill out a form. When purchasing or registering on our website, you may be asked to enter your: name, contact details, date of birth, address, emergency contact details, bank account and/or credit card details.

2. What does the Event use your information for?

The personal information we collect enables the Event to provide participants with a personalised experience of our services to suit individual needs. It enables the Event to:

- a. Improve the overall event experience including following recommended Health & Safety Procedures
- b. Improve its website offerings
- c. Improve its customer service
- d. Process transactions for the purchased product or service requested -
- e. Administer a contest, promotion, survey or other site feature
- f. Send periodic emails pertaining to your event entry including; news and updates, related product or service information, etc. From time to time, you may also receive communications from U Leisure Ltd regarding their other events. U Leisure Ltd will not share your email address with third parties. If you do not want to receive e-mails from us in the future, simply unsubscribe from the e-newsletter by clicking the unsubscribe button in the email newsletter.

3. How does the Event protect your information?

The Event takes all reasonable steps to keep secure personal information recorded. It is stored on secure servers in digital format. Event employees are obliged to respect the confidentiality of any personal and/or sensitive information held.

4. Access to your information

Individuals have the right to review, amend or delete personal and/or sensitive Information that may be recorded on the Event database. Information may be reviewed, amended or deleted by contacting us on 07 838 4312 or emailing: info@uleisure.co.nz

5. Cookies and use of Tracking Technologies

a. Event website

The Event website does not use cookies, however, it does utilise a range of third party programmes/ external sites which use cookies.

b. Third party websites

- i. Google Analytics generates statistical and other information about website use by means of cookies, which are stored on users' computers. The information generated relating to the Event's website is used by the Event Organiser to create reports about the use of the website. Google stores and uses this information. Google's privacy policy is available at: www.google.com/privacypolicy.html
- ii. Note: blocking cookies will have a negative impact upon the usability of some websites.

6. Do we disclose information to third parties?

We do not sell, trade, or transfer to third parties sensitive information. This does not include trusted third parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you, but we require those parties to agree to keep this information confidential. This information will not be used or disclosed for any other purposes without consent, except in exceptional cases when disclosure may be required by law or is necessary to protect the rights or property of participants at the Event, or any member of the public, or to lessen a serious threat to a person's health or safety. However, non-personally identifiable bulk visitor information may be provided to other parties for marketing, advertising, or other uses. Information is not shared with other organisations for commercial purposes.

7. Third Party and External Links

The Event has no responsibility or liability for the content and/or activities of sites linked to the Event website. These third party/external sites are not under the control of the Event and have separate and independent privacy policies, therefore the Event is not responsible for the conduct of companies linked to the Event website, nor for the performance or otherwise of any content and/or software contained in such external websites.

a. Third party websites

- i. SportsTG handles all payment data (SSL Secured 128). The website does not store or collect credit card information. SportsTG is PCI DSS compliant. Sports TG's privacy policy is available at: <http://sportstg.com/nz/privacy-policy/>

8. How long we do we hold your information?

We keep personal information for no longer than necessary. A request may be made to delete personal and/or sensitive information, and all reasonable steps to delete the information will be made, except where it is required for legal reasons. Deletion of information may result in the Event being unable to sell products directly and/or provide post-event services.

9. Your consent

By using our site, you consent to our privacy policy. If any provision of this privacy policy is held to be invalid, void, unenforceable or illegal for any reason, such provision shall be deemed to be severed from this privacy policy and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force.

10. Changes to our Privacy Policy

If we decide to change/ update our privacy policy, we will post any changes to this page. We advise that you check back periodically and review the policy. We will date stamp the policy so you can be aware of when the policy was last changed.

11. Contacting Us

If there are any questions regarding this privacy policy you can contact us via email: info@uleisure.co.nz